FLORIST - 60 SECOND EXAMPLES (FEEL FREE TO COPY)

Florist #1

Hi, I am Lily Chen with BloomStreet Floral. Thoughtful designs delivered on time. This week I am looking for HR teams planning quarterly appreciation gifts for twenty to one hundred employees. A local firm swapped generic swag for fresh desk arrangements. Morale lifted and offices looked brighter. This week I am asking for companies who want seasonal deliveries that feel personal. We handle notes, calendars, and delivery windows so managers can focus on people while we handle the petals and logistics. We begin with a short discovery call to confirm fit and goals. Next we outline a simple plan with clear steps and dates. Expect clear communication, transparent pricing, and realistic timelines. We coordinate with all parties so the handoff stays smooth and predictable. Our team documents progress with notes, photos, and status updates. We set expectations early. Florist #2

Hi, I am Owen Clark with Petal and Vine. Events that feel alive. I want event planners who need cohesive ceremony and reception florals on a realistic budget. A couple wanted classic color without waste. We repurposed ceremony pieces for the head table and photo area. The room looked full and the plan stayed on budget. This week I am looking for planners who value smart reuse and reliable timelines. We design, deliver, and strike on schedule so venues stay happy and photos shine. We begin with a short discovery call to confirm fit and goals. Next we outline a simple plan with clear steps and dates. Expect clear communication, transparent pricing, and realistic timelines.
